UPDATE

Continued police presence in the 200 blk of Barrett Avenue. Officers are still investigating. Bristol Bay is no longer on lockdown. Yorkville Police Department will remain at the school for a period of time to answer any questions from school staff. The school was placed on initial lockdown out of caution. No threat was ever made towards the school or any members of the school.

On Wednesday May 31st, 2023, at approximately 10:21am, Yorkville Police were dispatched to the Bristol Bay subdivision regarding a person displaying a weapon. Initial reports were that the subject was by themselves yelling, waving a gun around and getting violent. A multi police agency response was initiated.

Police were able to make contact the subject in question in the 200 block of Barrett Drive. During the investigation, Police learned the subject was going through a mental health crisis. There was no weapon on scene and there is no indication that the subject ever had possession of a weapon. The item was later discovered to be a blue tooth speaker. The subject was taken to an area hospital for a psychological evaluation.

There was a large police presence to include Yorkville Police Department, Oswego Police Department, Kendall County Sheriff's Office, Kendall County Criminal Intelligence Team and Montgomery Police Department. Bristol Kendall EMS assisted with the transport of the subject. We would like to thank all responding agencies. Our primary concern was the safety and wellbeing of everyone in the neighborhood and school which was in session.
