Facebook Post (04/10/25): Yorkville Man Charged in Murder-for-Hire Plot.

A Yorkville man has been arrested and charged in a murder-for-hire plot to kill his former wife. Mark A. Hellenthal (m/w 52 y.o.a. 2000 block Village View Dr. Yorkville, IL) was charged on April 10th, 2025, with Solicitation of Murder (Class X felony) and Solicitation of Murder for Hire (Class X felony) stemming from a Yorkville Police investigation that began on April 9th, 2025.

On April 9th, 2025, The Yorkville Police Department was alerted of a murder-for-hire plot involving Hellenthal who had arranged with an individual to have his former wife killed. Hellenthal provided the individual with information about the victim, including the location of her residence and how to gain access. Once learning of the allegations, Yorkville Police launched an investigation and were able to locate the victim arranging for her safety until the situation could be resolved.

On April 10th, 2025, Yorkville Police Investigations Division, with the assistance of Kendall County Cooperative Police Assistance Team (CPAT), secured authorization to record communications with Hellenthal. An undercover police officer posing as a hitman made contact with Hellenthal during which conversation, Hellenthal provided details on how to access the victim's residence and offered the undercover officer U.S. currency and jewelry as payment for killing his former wife. After the arrangements were communicated to police, Hellenthal was located at his workplace with the assistance of the Downers Grove Police Department. Hellenthal was then taken into custody by Yorkville Police Investigators and members of Kendall County CPAT.

Hellenthal was transported to the Kendall County Jail, where he remains in custody pending a detention hearing on April 11, 2025.

Charges are not proof of guilt. The defendant listed in this release is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial, at which it is the burden of the State to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Facebook Post (04/16/25): 50 Visits and Tail Still Wagging!!

This week, Eli, our service dog and his amazing human Erin hit a huge milestone - visit #50! You two have brought nothing but smiles, tail wags, and positive energy. Eli you have the heart of a hero (and the fluff to match!!) Erin, your kindness is just what we need to brighten the day. Here's a quick video celebrating our dynamic duo.....

Facebook Post (04/17/25): It's Thursday.....

Deputy Chief Ray Mikolasek has been serving both our community and this country for quite a while now. He came to YPD after his time in the Marine Corps and never looked back. Since then, he's worn just about every hat you can think of patrol officer, field training officer, school resource officer, commander of the Kendall County SRT, patrol sergeant, detective sergeant, and now Deputy Chief.

Our community - and this agency - wouldn't be the same without your dedication and hard work. You deserve all the honor and credit for your years of service.

You're alright Deputy Chief....not totally sure about the mustache though!!

Facebook Post (04/21/25): It's Administrative Professionals Week, and we're celebrating the heart of our team!

These five incredible women truly make our world go 'round - and somehow, they manage to put up with all of us in the process! We are sincerely grateful for their daily dedication, hard work, and the way they keep everything running smoothly behind the scenes.

From managing every bit of paperwork to juggling the countless details that keep this agency functioning, they are truly the glue that holds it all together.

This week we will be spotlighting each of them and giving them the appreciation they deserve. Thanks for kicking off the week in style, ladies!

Facebook Post (04/22/25): Maggie Garcia!!!!

Maggie serves in our Records Division, handling reports, citations, daily paperwork, and assisting the public at our front window. She is one of the most consistently positive and caring people we've ever had the privilege of working with - one of those people who just makes you smile!

Maggie, your dedication, kindness, and genuine care for our community and everyone around here doesn't go unnoticed. We just wanted to take a moment to say THANK YOU. Our city and our agency are better because you are here!

Facebook Post (04/23/25): Crystal Bieritz!!

We know you don't like the spotlight, but today it's all yours!

As we celebrate Administrative Professionals Week, we want to shine a well-earned light on Crystal. She serves in our Records Division - helping process everything that comes through this agency, assisting the public, and taking on daily side quests 🤪 without missing a beat.

What many don't see are the early mornings she spends opening the office, or the late nights dedicated to supporting our Police Commission.

Crystal, we see the work you put in, and it DOES NOT go unnoticed. We are truly grateful for your dedication and consistent professionalism. "Thank you" doesn't seem like enough - but please know we are a stronger, better team because of you.

Facebook Post (04/24/25): We're hitting pause on Throwback Thursday to keep the spotlight on Administrative Professionals Week. Great news today is all about you Kendall Harris!!! Kendall, since joining our team we've noticed two consistent things. You are always on task, and you always have a smile on your face. You might not realize how much of a difference those two things make, but what you bring to the table makes this agency better every single day. We're proud to have you on the team and truly VALUE everything you do for our citizens and YPD. THANK YOU for being you! Don't every change, no matter what Maggie Garcia says! 😊

Facebook Post (04/25/25): Friday is for Amy Densberger! As Administrative Professionals Week rolls on, today we honor Amy Densberger. How do we even begin to express our thanks for one of the most professional, hardworking, and kind individuals we've ever met? Amy serves as our training coordinator and handles all things training for our agency. And she does it with absolute excellence! Our training program has reached new heights under Amy's care. Training hours and opportunities have increased, new instructors have been added, we've begun hosting regional training classes right here in our building, and we've certified multiple in-house trainings with the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board. Amy is the failsafe, ensuring that every one of us meets—and exceeds—the police training standards set by the state. It's a massive responsibility, and if not done properly, it carries serious consequences. We are grateful that with Amy's oversight, we never have to worry. Amy, we've grown used to expecting greatness from you—and somehow, you continue to exceed even those expectations. And you still find time to feed Eli his doggie treats! 😊 THANK YOU for making sure we are always at our best. Your impact is felt every single day.

Facebook Post (04/25/25): *Scam Alert**

The Yorkville Police Department has been made aware of a person purporting to be a Sergeant with the Kendall County Sheriff's Office and demanding payment via PayPal for missing jury duty. THIS IS A SCAM. No law enforcement agency will use PayPal or any other non-traditional forms of payment to resolve criminal matters.

When in doubt hang up and contact our non-emergency number at (630)553-4340 to speak with a patrol officer.

Facebook Post (04/26/25): As we wrap up Administrative Professionals Week, we've saved our Records Supervisor, Kirsten Balog, for last!

Kirsten oversees our Records Division and manages countless essential tasks at YPD. From monthly and annual reports to purchasing documents, payroll, FOIA requests—you name it, she's on it—all while jumping in to tackle the daily workload alongside her team. Honestly, we could keep going, but it is Saturday!

Kirsten, your easygoing nature and great sense of humor make every day better. We might like to joke more often than we should, but please know we SEE your hard work and we HONOR all that you do. Your division runs smoothly because of your leadership, and that success reflects directly back to you.

We are truly lucky to have you, Kirsten. Thank you for everything!

Facebook Post (04/03/25): Throwback Thursday: Kendall SRT Edition

We're fortunate to have strong partnerships among agencies in Kendall County, and the Special Response Team is a prime example of the collective desire to be ready at a moment's notice. To the officers pictured: We're not as young as we used to be! To the next generation: Continue the proud tradition of Kendall S.R.T. and enjoy every moment - you'll be old one day too!!!

We're grateful for our instructors who continually invest in our officers, and our officers who never hesitate to run towards danger. This month our training focused on sharpening rapid response tactics - ensuring we stay ready, capable, and committed to protecting our community.

Facebook Post (04/10/25): Throwback Thursday - Commander McMahon Edition!
We've uncovered photographic proof that Commander McMahon knows how to smile!!
For over 20 years, Pat has served the City of Yorkville in roles ranging from Patrol Officer, Officer in Charge, Detective, and Detective Sergeant, to Commander of the Major Crimes Task Force, and now Patrol Commander.
In all sincerity, Commander McMahon's commitment to this department and our community is second to none. He is a police officer through and through.
We're proud of you Pat! Bring back that smile from time to time!

Facebook Post (04/28/25): Welcome back, Officer Tickel and Officer Wade!
Our two newest officers graduated this past Friday from the Macon County Law Enforcement Academy with high marks. We're excited to have them back - and we're pretty sure they're happy to no longer be making the weekly trip to Decatur!
They will now begin their 16-week field training program to put the finishing touches on their academy learning. Officers Tickel and Wade bring exactly the high-quality character and enthusiasm that will serve our Yorkville community well.
Be sure to say hello and welcome them when you see them out and about!

Facebook Post (04/29/25): There's no better way to start your day than a ride to school in a police car! Last Friday, our new friend Lukas got a ride to school from Officer Swanson. Lukas got this awesome opportunity by winning a school raffle this past winter.

TRAFFIC COMPLAINT / ENFORCEMENT INFORMATION

In April 2025, the Yorkville Police Department had received traffic concerns for various locations in town. These concerns were established through both citizen concerns and areas of concern for the department. All citizen concerns were tracked for potential issues. In some cases to verify that the concerns needed to be further addressed, (5) five years of crash data was researched. In addition, these locations were further researched by utilizing the department's speed signs. These speed signs were able to collect traffic data related to traffic counts, speed data, and various times of day of violations. In addition, the department also relied upon its partnership with EEI.

DETECTIVE SQUAD

On 04/09/2025, the Investigation’s Unit was contacted by the Kendall County State’s Attorney’s Office regarding a Murder for Hire Plot that was reported to them. An investigation immediately began into that allegation and contact was made with the would-be assassin and their attorney. After obtaining a statement and evidence from that person, the suspect was identified as Mark Hellenthal (52 years old) and it was determined that Mark was attempting to hire and/or induce two other people to murder his ex-wife. With that information, the Investigation’s Unit contacted the Kendall County Cooperative Police Assistance Team and utilized an undercover agent, which had contact with Hellenthal. Hellenthal then solicited the undercover officer to murder his ex-wife. With that information, Hellenthal was taken into custody at his work in Downers Grove, Illinois. Hellenthal was charged with Solicitation of Murder and Solicitation of Murder for Hire, both class X felonies. This investigation is currently ongoing.

The Investigation’s Unit also responded and is currently investigating two Criminal Sexual Assaults, two Aggravated Batteries, and multiple financial crimes that were assigned to investigations during the month of April.

On 04/05/2025, SRO Goldsmith was notified by the Yorkville High School that two juvenile students had made entry to the school after hours and without authorization. Those students were identified and subsequently charged with Burglary.
