The specific time and location of practices will be determined by the individual coach and practice availability.

League Mission And Philosophy

The Yorkville Parks and Recreation Department strives to provide fun and educational athletic leagues and programs in a safe environment. Although sports are competitive in nature, our goal is to keep the level of play fair amongst all teams. We do not guarantee that any requests made during the registration process are honored and expect that all parents, players and coaches abide by the attached Code of Conduct.

FAMILY, GUEST, & PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

- o I will remember that children participate to have fun and that the game is for youth, not adults.
- o I will learn the rules of the game and the policies of the program.
- o I understand by participating in the program, I take responsibility for all guests that I bring and children participating in the program.
- o I, my guests, and my child will be a positive role model and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, officials, and spectators at every game and practice.
- o I, my guests, and my child will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, player, or parent such as booing and taunting; refusing to shake hands; or using profane language or gestures, or run onto the playing surface in protest of a decision.
- o I will demand that my child treat other players, coaches, officials and spectators with respect.
- o I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participants for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- o I will promote the emotional and physical well-being of the athletes ahead of any personal desire I may have for my child to win.
- o I will respect coaches and staff and their authority during games, and will take time to speak to staff and coaches at an agreed upon time and place.
- o I will never questions, discuss, or confront officials before, during, or after a contest.
- o I understand that all decisions made by the Yorkville Parks & Recreation Department are final and not subject to change.

I agree to abide by the guidelines stated above and understand that if I, my guest, and/or children participating in the program do not abide by the guidelines we are subject to disciplinary action by the Recreation Coordinator/Superintendent of Recreation and might forfeit all privileges as a spectator at all Yorkville Parks & Recreation sporting events and programs.
