Have you ever been convicted of a felony that has not been expunged or sealed? Yes No

A conviction alone will not necessarily bar you from employment; we review these issues on a case-by-case basis to determine if a conviction record is job related. The applicant should not disclose any information regarding criminal arrest or conviction records that have been expunged or sealed, including expunged juvenile records and related information.

Applicant's Statement

I certify that all of my answers given here are true and complete to the best of my knowledge, and that supplying false information herein shall result in immediate disqualification for consideration for employment or termination from employment, regardless of when such false information is discovered. I authorize investigation of all statements contained in this application for employment as may be necessary in arriving at an employment decision; and I hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless each and every current or prior employer in defending against any charge, complaint or suit filed with any Federal, State or local agency, or in any court of the State or Federal government for providing an accurate, factual history of employment information. I understand that neither this document nor any offer of employment from the employer constitutes an employment contract, unless a specific document to that effect is executed by the employer and employee in writing.
