Kendall-Yorkville Explorer Post

Law Enforcement Exploring is a hands-on program open to young men and women who are at least 15 years of age but not yet 21 years old.

The program offers young adults a personal awareness of the criminal justice system through training, practical experiences, competition, and other activities. Additionally, the program promotes personal growth through character development, respect for the rule of law, physical fitness, good citizenship and patriotism.

THE MOST POPULAR CAREERS OF INTEREST TO LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPLORERS

- City Law Enforcement Officers
- County Law Enforcement Officers
- State Law Enforcement Officers
- Federal Law Enforcement Officers & Special Agents
- Law Enforcement Intelligence Analysts, Forensic Laboratory, Specialists & other vital support specialists

Law Enforcement Exploring combines some classroom training with ride alongs in police vehicles, pistol shooting, community policing, and much more. You get to experience firsthand what it's like to be an officer of the law.

YOU WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO PARTICIPATE IN:

- National Law Enforcement Exploring Conferences and National Law Enforcement Exploring Leadership Academies
- National Law Enforcement Exploring Pistol Shooting Championship
- Post-sponsored basic, advanced and specialized law enforcement training programs
- Local, state and regional training programs, conferences and competitive events sponsored by certified Law Enforcement Exploring Associations
- Post-sponsored Ride-Along programs in patrol cars and other police conveyance operations such as Marine Patrols and Bike Policing

YOU WILL HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO NETWORK WITH:

- Law Enforcement Explorers across the country and in some cases with young adults in programs similar to Law Enforcement Exploring sponsored by foreign police agencies
- Law enforcement professionals from local, county, state, federal and military organizations
- Judges, prosecutors and other professionals involved with the criminal justice system
- Community leaders, representatives from private and public community organizations, and instructors and professors from educational institutions that offer criminal justice and related programs
