Art in City Hall

Art in City Hall Artist Application

Thank you for your interest in Yorkville's Art in City Hall program. All exhibits are welcome but are at the discretion of the United City of Yorkville. Acceptance as an exhibitor is contingent upon the completion of all forms. Exhibits are displayed for two months in the City's Council Chambers. A gallery hanging system is provided. Artists are allowed to bring easels for additional displays. All participants must complete and submit the following information: Art in City Hall Artist Application Form, the Consignment Contract, the Art in City Hall Agreement Policy and the Art Inventory List. In order to provide you with the best possible advertising, please provide your background information, current resume (if available), and comments relating to your exhibit in a Microsoft Word or PDF document. Additional questions or information is available by contacting City Hall at 630-553-4350. All information and forms must be submitted via e-mail to ewillrett@yorkville.il.us or mailed to:
